

MORE TROOPS SENT INTO THE FIELDTHE APACHE UPRISING IS BE-COMING SERIOUS.

One or More Members of the Parks Posse Killed—Seven Heavily Armed Indians in Custody—Alarm Felt For Sheriff Wight as no News Has Been Received From Him.

Silver City, N. M., Dec. 9.—Orders were received at Fort Bayard yesterday, ordering out all remaining cavalry at that post to make forced marches across into Arizona to assist in the capturing of the band of renegade Indians that committed nine murders near the San Carlos reservation last week. The troops left at once.

The orders were accompanied by a report that the citizens' posse which left Duncan, Ariz., immediately after the discovery of the murders, had run into the Indians near Clifton, Ariz., and that a fight had followed, in which one or more of the posse had been killed, and the order for moving the troops was for the purpose of closing in upon the band before the Mexican line could be reached. The posse was under the leadership of the Parks brothers, skilled frontiersmen and Indian fighters.

TROOPS ON THE TRAIL.

Indians Have an Advantage in the Rough Country.

Deming, N. M., Dec. 9.—News from the scene of the murders in Arizona committed by renegade Apaches from the San Carlos reservation states that the troops from Fort Bayard and Fort Grant are on the trail, and that it leads to the line of old Mexico into the Sierra Madre mountains, the stronghold of the renegades for years. By treaty, soldiers can pass the international boundary to pursue the Indians, but the country is so rough and mountainous that it is very improbable that they will ever get within a hundred miles of the murderers. In all, six murders are reported, the first crime being committed on last Monday on Eagle Creek, when three brothers named Hinton and a man named Searles were killed and horribly mutilated. On Tuesday a farmer named Merrill and his 16-year-old daughter were slain in the road, six miles west of Ash Springs. The girl had been outraged and the body was fearfully mutilated. A party of miners from Duncan, Ariz., left in advance of the soldiers, heavily armed and well mounted, and at last accounts were following the Indians within two hours.
The crimes do not indicate an outbreak or serious trouble, being the work of a few murderous bucks, whose actions are condemned by the reservation Indians, who are contented.

ARMED INDIANS ARRESTED.

Believed to Be the Murderers of Merrill and His Daughter.

Fort Grant, Ariz., Dec. 9.—The party of White Mountain Apache Indians who are missing from their camp on the San Carlos reservation, and who are supposed to have murdered Merrill and his daughter, near Solomonville, three days ago, were arrested and brought into San Carlos agency late Saturday night by a detachment of Captain Bell's troops, of the Seventh cavalry, and the Indian police. The party consisted of seven men and a boy, all mounted and heavily armed, two of them carrying cavalry carbines that fit the identical bullet which brought Merrill and his daughter to their untimely end. The Indians claim to have been hunting in the mountains near Fort Thomas, and the fifty miles from these mountains to the Gila Bonita Valley, in which Merrill and his daughter were killed, is only a step for these wily Apaches. They are being held under guard at San Carlos for further investigation, but there is little doubt that Colonel Bell has the true murderers. Prominent cattlemen at Fort Thomas report having seen a party of six or seven Indians near the trail leading to the valley in which the killing took place.

NO NEWS FROM THE POSSE.

Anxiety Felt for Sheriff Wight and His Men.

Solomonville, Ariz., Dec. 9.—Great anxiety is felt here on account of no news arriving from the posse who are following the trail of the murderers of Merrill and daughter. Indians undoubtedly committed the deed, as nothing was molested except the provision box, which was emptied and left near the scene of the murder. The commander at Fort Grant was notified of the uneasiness felt for Sheriff Wight and his posse. It is presumed he will send troops on the trail. It is not impossible that the posse has been ambushed, but it would seem that, of nineteen, all would not be killed. If no news comes today another posse will probably go out. Six years ago a sheriff's posse from Tucson followed train robbers to Mexico and all were put into jail by the Mexican officials, and not heard from for ten days. It may be that Sheriff Wight's posse has met a similar fate.
The report sent from Phoenix that four miners had been killed near Fort Thomas is not true. Such a rumor was heard here, but investigation failed to confirm it.

LABOR MEN IN SESSION.

Convention of American Federation of Labor Has Commenced.

New York, Dec. 9.—The largest congress of labor leaders ever held in New York as far as the numbers represented and the interests involved are concerned, begins to-day at Madison Square Garden, with the opening of the fifteenth annual convention of the American Federation of Labor. More than 500,000 organized workmen in the United States are sending their delegates, 115 in number—to represent them. Perhaps a million workmen would be nearer the mark, but the officers of the federation are conservative as to numbers, and reckon only those who are in good standing with the subordinate unions. Important questions will come before the convention, including the carrying out of a general eight-hour movement on May 1, 1896. Questions affecting the standing of subordinate national unions will be discussed, and some long standing fights between rival unions will be considered. The question of harmonizing national bodies will also be considered and efforts will be made to extinguish the Knights of Labor as a trade union movement and compel that body to become a purely educational one. Ex-President Gompers is a candidate for president in opposition to President McBride.

WILL FIGHT GREAT BRITAIN.

Intense Patriotic Sentiment Evincing by Venezuelans.

Washington, Dec. 9.—Word comes from Venezuela as to the excitement and patriotic enthusiasm over the boundary controversy with Great Britain. At Puerto Cabello a public meeting has been held, and subscriptions have been opened for the purchase of a torpedo boat for the defense of the harbor. At the City of Bolivar another subscription is being received by the Central Bank, citizens of all parts of the republic agreeing to contribute a stated sum weekly. At Caracas, the capital of Venezuela, a convention is to be held, probably this month, to consider the question of defense. No information has been received at the Venezuelan legation here of the contents of the note which it is reported has been received by the German Minister at Caracas for delivery to President Crespino, in which Great Britain demands $50,000,000 for the arrest by Venezuelans of "Englishmen on English soil."

THREE MEN KILLED.

Fatal Railroad Accident at New York—Responsibility Not Placed.

New York, Dec. 9.—Three men were killed and two more were injured in a railroad wreck yesterday on the New York and New Haven railway in Harlem. The killed:

FITZGERALD, THOMAS, engineer,

MAPLES, FREDERICK, brakeman,

M'NALLY, THOMAS, brakeman,

New York.

The injured:

Bannon, Thomas, conductor, cut and scalded, New York.

McKeon, Thomas, fireman, cut and

scalded, New York.

The location of the accident was at a short curve and no explanation of the responsibility for the trouble could be ascertained.

Kentucky Legislature Made a Tie.

Frankfort, Ky., Dec. 9.—Now that the legislature is made a tie politically by the Democrats re-electing A. J. Carroll at Louisville, the aspirants for the senatorship to succeed Senator Blackburn are here with their managers, and a very hotly contested fight is on. Governor-elect Bradley arrived at 9:50 a. m. this morning by special train from his home at Lancaster. After his inauguration tomorrow it is stated that he will be an important factor in the senatorial contest that is pending before the legislature, and it is generally conceded that the governor-elect favors Congressman Hunter, who managed the recent successful campaign in the state for the Republicans.

Tragedy Near Dexter, Iowa.

Dexter, Ia., Dec. 9.—The Valentine Hibbs home, four miles northeast of Dexter, was the scene yesterday of a bloody tragedy. Grant Hibbs, aged 32 years, fired one shot at his wife, then turned the 38-calibre revolver and shot himself twice through the head. After shooting himself he grabbed a knife and inflicted two very dangerous wounds on his wife before falling from the loss of blood. Hibbs is slowly dying, his brains running out of both wounds. The wife is in a precarious condition. The floor, stove, bed and walls are spattered with blood.

Tugs to Search for the Strathnevis.

Port Townsend, Wash., Dec. 9.— Search for the disabled steamer Strath-nevis will be prosecuted by the Oriental steamer Tacoma, which sailed westward from Victoria yesterday. In a few days two or three tugs will be sent out a couple of hundred miles to await her appearance.

Telegraph Wires Cut.

Fort Grant, Ariz., Dec. 9.—There is no news from the Indians nor from the scouting parties who are out from the various military posts. The wires between this point and San Carlos agency and Fort Apache went down about noon yesterday, and it is believed they were cut by the renegade Indians.

SULTAN HOLDS OUT
AGAINST THEM ALLTURKISH DIPLOMACY IS NOW BEING EXHIBITED.

Policy of Procrastination Is a Success —Not a Point Gained By the Ambassadors—Details of the Sivas Massacre—The Armenians Are Starving.

Constantinople, Dec. 7, via Sofia, Bulgaria, Dec. 9.—The situation here on the question of the extra guard ships of the powers remains unchanged.
Statements are constantly reiterated of the continued accord of the powers and their unyielding determination to insist upon a compliance with their demands.

Less is heard, however, of the rumors which were of frequent occurrence in the early period after the demand had been presented, that the sultan had at length decided to grant the necessary firman to permit the passage of the Dardanelles, or even that he had actually issued it. Neither is there such explicit announcement any more of the period which is to elapse before a movement of the war ships of the powers is to commence, to enforce the demands made upon the sultan.

Since the return of H. R. S. Dryad to Salonica Bay, no word has been heard of any actual order or movement to advance upon the Dardanelles. Opinion continues divided as to whether the delay in taking any action to enforce the demands is due to a fear of causing a fanatical outbreak against the Christians by the Mussulman subjects of the sultan or to a dread of a clash ensuing between the powers themselves. The flight of Said Pasha and his refuge in the British embassy are the subject of the most sensational interest, and the almost frantic efforts made by the sultan to induce him to return to the Yildiz palace, indicate his fear either that he has lost his most powerful intermediary that he could hope for between himself and the powers in evading the uncomfortable demands they make upon him or the most dangerous adversary he could fear having in counsel with the powers.

Explicit instructions were again received yesterday by all the ambassadors to insist on the admission of the guard ships, as has been stated, without effecting any change in the situation. Russia's hesitation has ceased. It is currently reported that M. Nelidoff, the Russian ambassador, has given the sultan the czar's message, insisting upon the entry of the guard ships.

Authentic details have now been received of the Sivas massacre. They show that the slaughter began on Nov.
12, and continued for a week following. It is known that 1,200 Armenians and ten Turks were killed before there was a cessation of the bloody work. A high official in a position to know declares that the massacres were the deliberate work of the sultan's vengeance for having been compelled to grant the reforms in Armenia demanded by the powers.

Relief for Starving Armenians.

London, Dec. 9.—The Marquis of Salisbury has written to the treasurer of the Armenian fund to the effect that the consul at Moosh, through the British ambassador, Sir Philip Currie, reports that the Armenians of the Bitlis district are in danger of starving. The treasurer has forwarded £4,000 for Bitlis, Karpoot, Erzeroum, Mardin and Trebizonde.

HAYWARD'S LAST WORDS.

The Murderer's Farewell Speech to His Brother Adry.

Minneapolis, Minn., Dec. 9.—"May the curse of God fall on you and yours, and allow me, from the minute I drop from the scaffold, to haunt you day and night until your death. Aha! I will meet you on the brink of hell with a red-hot poker."

These were the farewell words of Harry Hayward to his brother Adry yesterday afternoon. It was their last meeting on earth, and such the murderer intended it to be. Adry was as calm as the prisoner was impassioned.
He was unmoved by the anathemas except toward pity. His was the brotherly affection, uttering the fervent "God bless you, Harry; good-by, Harry," which elicited the remark quoted above. Gov. Clough on Saturday set Wednesday, Dec. 11, as the date for Hayward's execution.

Fatal Riot in a Mining Town.

Pittsburg, Pa., Dec. 9.—Early yesterday morning Luigi Fratini was shot in the heart and in the temple and had his skull fractured with a club in an Italian speak-easy at Heidelberg, a mining town on the Panhandle railroad.
Twenty men engaged in a general fight. Four or five others were shot and cut, and two more deaths may result. Despite his many injuries, Fratini lived three-quarters of an hour. Six men are under arrest.

Killed by a Twelve-Year-Old Boy.

St. Joseph, Mo., Dec. 9.—William H.
Franz, a policeman, was shot and mortally wounded here at noon yesterday in L. Leibowitz's pawnshop. The fatal bullet was fired by the pawnbroker's 12-year-old son, Abe, while the boy's father and mother held Franz on the floor.
Franz went to the place to recover a stolen watch.

WORK OF CONGRESS
IS ALL LAID OUTFORECAST OF THE WEEK'S PROBABILITIES.

Little Can Be Done Until the Committees Are Appointed—How Chairmanships in the Senate are Likely to Be Appointed—News of the Nation.

Washington, Dec. 9.—The house programme this week is a dreary waste. Until the committees are appointed the machinery of the house is blocked and nothing can be done save by unanimous consent. Any resolution that might be presented—and it is in this form that the sensations that agitate the lower branch of congress are usually sprung—would go down before a single objection. For this reason no attempt will be made to do anything until Speaker Reed announces his committees, which he now expects to have ready at the end of the week.

There probably will be but three brief sessions this week. When the house meets today an adjournment will be taken until Wednesday or Thursday, and from that date until Saturday, when the committees will be announced. The indications are that practically nothing can be done in the way of consideration of actual legislation until after the holidays. However, the congressional hoppers are filling up preparatory to the grinding that will follow later. Last week several hundred bills were introduced, and it is probable that fully as many will be started on their journey to the statute books this week.

As the president is absent on his hunting trip, there is no probability that the reply of Lord Salisbury to Secretary Olney's note regarding the Venezuelan boundary dispute, in which congress is so deeply interested, will be sent to the house this week. There may be an attempt through a resolution to procure from Secretary Olney the letter sent to him by the British premier last July and Lord Salisbury's reply, received Saturday; but should such an attempt be made it will unquestion-ably prove abortive. The adoption of such a resolution would require unanimous consent, and there is no doubt that some friend of the administration would object to it as lacking in deference to the president in his absence, and the fact that Mr. Cleveland in his message advised congress that he would send the reply to congress with a special message will, doubtless, be cited as an additional reason why it would not be good taste to make a demand on the executive department of the government, until it manifested, at least, a disinclination to send to congress the correspondence.

The probabilities are that the coming week in the senate will be given up largely to caucusing by all parties, and that the senate's daily sessions will be brief, with little effort at legislation.
The introduction of bills will be continued, though no work of consequence can be done until the committees are filled. There is nothing on the calendar except two speeches, one by Senator Morgan, announced for today, on the Behring Sea question, and the other by Senator Cullom on the Monroe doctrine resolution. It is understood that Senator Morgan will pay his respects to Ambassador Pauncefoot and Lord Salisbury.

THE SENATE COMMITTEES.

How the Chairmanships Are Likely to Be Divided.

Washington, Dec. 9.—The republican caucus committee of the senate will hold its first formal meeting today after adjournment for the purpose of filling the committee vacancies and selecting chairmen of the various committees.
While nothing has been finally agreed upon, it looks now as if the chairmanships of the more important committees would be assigned as follows:

Agriculture, Proctor; appropriations, Allison; coast defense, Squire; census, Chandler; commerce, Frye; District of Columbia, McMillan; finance, Morrill; fisheries, Perkins; foreign relations, Sherman; immigration, Lodge; Indian affairs, Pettigrew; interstate commerce, Cullom; judiciary, Hoar; military affairs, Hawley; naval affairs, Cameron; postoffices and postroads, Wolcott; printing, Hale; privileges and elections, Mitchell of Oregon; public buildings and grounds, Quay; relations with Canada, Carter; rules, Aldrich; territories, Davis.

Heavy Fire Loss at Chicago.

Chicago, Dec. 9.—Six hundred thousand dollars' worth of tin pans, wax dolls, suspenders, metal and bone collar buttons, mechanical toys, cheap umbrellas and clothing and a thousand other articles of commerce that constitute the contents of peddlers' Christmas packs was destroyed by fire in Harris, Wolf & Co.'s big store at 250 and 252 Madison street, yesterday. The firm carried insurance on stock to the amount of 80 per cent of inventoried value. Another fire broke out at 10:30 at Nos. 178 and 180 Wabash avenue, and before it was quenched had cost a loss of $100,000 to the building and the stock of Meyer & Weber's piano house and other concerns under the same roof.
Two men were injured in the fires, one in each, and two had narrow escapes in the Wabash avenue blaze, being rescued from the building in time to save their lives.

THE CONVENTION FIGHT.

Chicago Confident of Securing the Big Prize—Must Go to the West.

Washington, Dec. 9.—Chicago, St.
Louis and San Francisco, three of the cities competing for the republican convention, are now well represented by delegations. Pittsburg, the fourth city, has her vanguard in Washington, while the main body is due to-day. National committeemen also continue to arrive, and it is expected that by night practically all will be here and prepared for the meeting to-morrow morning. The Pittsburg headquarters have not yet been occupied, and it is generally understood that while the Smoky City will have a delegation here the strongest politicians in the state, including Senator Quay, have practically given up the fight. Late last night T.
C. Platt and Cornelius N. Bliss, of New York, arrived to make a pro forma bid for the convention. The sentiment of the committee is that the convention must go to the west, and the strength of Chicago lies in the fact that men like Quay, Platt, Clarkson, Manley, and others of the real leaders of the party believe the convention must go there.

Joe Manley is pledged to vote for San Francisco, but he said last night Chicago would win. Platt makes no concealment of his position and says Chicago is inevitable. The boomers for other cities have learned this fact, and their only hope now is that the committee may make such unpleasant terms that the Chicago men will not accede to them.

San Francisco has run up against the stone wall of inadequate telegraphic facilities and the difference in time, Pittsburg had to fight with deficient hotel accommodations, while St. Louis has not yet been able to account satisfactorily for the condition of the thermometer down there in June. It is rumored San Francisco will offer $250,- 000 for the prize.

TO AID CUBANS.

Offer of a New York Syndicate, If Accepted, Will End the War.

New York, Dec. 9.—A syndicate of American capitalists has been formed in this city to aid the Cuban insurgents.
To Marquis de Santa Lucia, president of the provisional republic, a representative of the syndicate has made a proposition to lend the Cuban republic $15,000,000 contingent upon the recognition of belligerency by the United States government. In exchange, the syndicate will accept $45,000,000 in Cuban bonds, the same to be canceled from customs receipts immediately on the recognition by Spain of the Cuban republic or a declaration of peace.
The syndicate stipulates that $10,000,- 000 be expended in the purchase of modern war ships and munitions of war; that these vessels shall immediately proceed to capture and hold, in conjunction with land forces, some Cuban port to be hereafter agreed on, and that they, with the assistance of other men-of-war, whose purchase later may be deemed advisable, shall prey on Spanish commerce and assume an aggressive policy which will bring this war to an early end.

NOTED WRITER DEAD.

George Augustus Sala, Passes Away at London.

London, Dec. 9.—George Augustus Henry Sala, the distinguished author and journalist, is dead. He was born in London in 1828. In the early part of his career he became a contributor of articles to newspapers and magazines.
He founded and was the first editor of the Temple Bar Magazine. He visited the United States in 1863 as special correspondent for the Daily Telegraph and in the latter part of the following year published the result of his observations under the title of "America in the Midst of War."

Harrison Refuses to Talk.

Indianapolis, Ind., Dec. 9.—The report from New York that ex-President Harrison was soon to be married to Mrs. Dimmock, a niece of his dead wife, created considerable gossip here, but, after weighing all the circumstances, the general's friends reached the conclusion that there is no foundation for the story. The general was seen at his residence last night and was told of the New York dispatch and asked if regarding its truth. He did not affirm or deny the report, but seemed to resent by his tone and manner the insinuation that such a thing was possible. His friends do not believe that the story is reliable, but at the same time they admit that they know nothing concerning his relations to Mrs. Dimmock.

Funeral of Gen. Wright.

Des Moines, Ia., Dec. 9.—Funeral services of Gen. Ed Wright were attended by a large concourse of people here yesterday. Remains were in state house, and for more than two hours were viewed by passing friends and admirers. Services were under the auspices of Kinsman post, G. A. R., of which he was a member.

Another Kentucky Shortage.

Frankfort, Ky., Dec. 9.—A sensation was created here last night by an official report of State Inspector Gardner, filed with Governor Brown, showing a shortage of about $10,000 in the accounts of G. B. Swango, register of the land office. He was one of the nominees on the recently defeated Democratic state ticket, and it is said heavy campaign expenses contributed largely to his present embarrassment. The report states that the shortage began in 1891.

ens Point Also Destroyed, Together

Hortonville, Wis., Dec. 9.—[Special]—W. L. Root's large potato warehouse at Medina burned this morning with all its contents. The loss is six thousand dollars and the insurance three thousand.

Stevens Point, Wis., Dec. 9.—[Special]—Johns' hall was destroyed by fire last night. A. Palieka's millinery store was also burned and the loss will be $3,000, with an insurance of half that amount.

SEED DISTRIBUTION.

Secretary Morton and Congressman Hays Clash on the Subject.

Washington, Dec. 9.—There bids fair to be an interesting contest in this congress between Secretary of Agriculture Morton and the members who have agricultural constituencies over the distribution of seeds.

By virtue of an opinion rendered last summer by Attorney-General Olney, the secretary has practically done away with the time-honored system of seed gratuities to the public. Since his course was made public members have been planning to take action to compel the secretary to carry out the law according to their interpretation of it, which was made plain in the course of a long debate on the question by the last house.

In anticipation of the congressional request for an explanation which was initiated by Mr. Baker of New Hampshire the secretary of agriculture has had printed a circular explaining his course, which is being distributed to members.

EXTERMINATING SEALS.

Wanton and Ruthless Slaughter in Bering Sea.

Portland, Ore., Dec. 9.—U. K. Nice, agent at Dutch Harbor, Unalaska, for the American Commercial company, which holds concessions from the United States government for killing seals on the islands of the Bering Sea, is in the city. He left Dutch Harbor after the close of the past sealing season and is outspoken in his denunciation of the present international agreement, which, he says, privileges the wanton slaughter of seals and means their extermination if some changes are not made in the near future. Fully 30,000 seals starved to death during the past season, according to Mr. Nice, on the islands of St.
George and St. Paul in Bering sea, through the willful slaughter of their mothers in the open sea by roving seal crews.

Americans to Build a Chinese Railroad.

Port Townsend, Wash., Dec. 9.—A concession from the Chinese government to build a line of railroad from tidewater to Peking has been obtained by a syndicate of American capitalists.
The road will be about 200 miles long and will tap a valuable coal mining district. The operation and construction of the road will be under the direct patronage of the Chinese government, but American capital and engineers are the principal factors in the scheme.
Among the men of prominence said to be in the deal are Senator Calvin S.
Brice of Ohio, Whitelaw Reid, editor of the New York Tribune, ex-Secretary of State John W. Foster, and others.

Fitzsimmons Has Not Signed Articles.

Houston, Tex., Dec. 9.—W. K.
Wheelock saw Martin Julian, manager of Bob Fitzsimmons, yesterday and tried to induce him to sign articles for the meeting with Peter Maher. Julian positively refused to sign, objecting to the date, Feb. 14, and to the size of the purse hung up. He wants $20,000.

Nebraska Murderer Has Swift Justice.

Omaha, Neb., Dec. 9.—George Morgan, who one month ago last night assaulted and killed 10-year-old Ida Gaskill, was yesterday found guilty of murder and sentenced to hang. Morgan denied the offense, but said he was intoxicated when he is alleged to have committed the crime.

HALSEY TELLS WHY CATHOLICISM WINS

METHODIST PASTOR'S STRONG AND TOLERANT TALK

He Sees Three Great Reasons Why the Church of Rome Has Gained With Each Century—High Purpose, Loyal Members and Almost Perfect Organization.

A congregation that included many representative Catholics heard a thoughtful, temperate, earnest sermon by Rev. Dr. Halsey Sunday night on "Why the Catholic Church Wins." Dr. Halsey is too broad a man to deny the strength of churches other than his own and his sermon was strong in its teachings of toleration and unity. He said:

"If any one present thinks the hour will be devoted to finding fault with the Catholic church or to an effort to crown prejudice now hoary with age he will go away disappointed. Possibly the Catholic church teaches some doctrines which to you no not seem true. It is possible that you do not like her forms and ceremonial or her splendid ritual but it is not fair to find fault with her people because they like these things. The Catholic church has been for nearly nineteen centuries and is today a mighty influence among men. Her influence has been felt in every land, whatever theories may be advanced by way of explanation. Surely it is the part of wisdom to study a church which is backed by such a history.

Reasons For Catholicism's Sway.

Three causes were given by Dr. Halsey for the Catholic church's sway. "First," said he, "she believes that she is the true church of Christ with a special divine mission to a world that is in bondage to the slavery of sin. There is a mighty and invincible persistency in that kind of a faith which is sure to win a large degree of success. Notwithstanding some advocate the theory that matters of religion should always be left in a loose and indefinite form so as to permit the largest possible freedom of choice on the part of the individual, the theory never will be very popular because there is that in the soul of man which demands positive utterances, a clearly defined mission, a holy purpose, a center of authority and power somewhere which commands obedience and offers reward for obedience. The Catholic church is not simply a social organization, it is not a town meeting opened by prayer and closed by a benediction where people meet to discuss current events, but in the thought of her leaders and people a church to look especially after the spiritual interests of the multitude. Others may contest the lawfulness of her claim but she marches, toward the accomplishment of her mission.

No Infidels in Her Ranks.

"As a church she holds to the doctrine of a supernatural revelation given to the world through inspired men for the purpose of teaching the plan of human redemption, how to escape the fearful consequences of sin in time and eternity. The inspiration of the scriptures is never questioned and the ranks of infidelity and atheism have never been recruited from her fold. There is a uniformity in the teaching given which prevents confusion of faith and begets a feeling of confidence and blessed assurance.

"The Catholic church believes in the deity of Christ. Believing in such a Christ it is no wonder she has wrought victories.

"The Catholic church believes in the guilt and peril of sin and the necessity for hearty repentance and faith as the ground for forgiveness. Her services, her ordinances, her holy days, her festivals, the very chime of her bells tell the old story of the sinfulness of the human heart and the necessity of forgiveness."

Organized Like an Army.

The almost perfect organization of the Catholic church was pointed out as another reason for its success. This has enabled her to enter every door as soon as it swung open, and has enabled her to do great things for the poor or distressed. It enables her to command her people in all matters of faith and conduct.

"I cannot keep back the thought," said the speaker, "that it would be a good thing if Protestantism had a little more of the Catholic sort of spinal column in guiding her people."

The care exercised by the Catholic church in rearing the young was cited, and was given as one of the reasons for the loyalty of Catholics to their church; and the speaker closed by an eloquent tribute to Catholics for their faithfulness, and to the church that inspired such faithfulness.

Pastors Exchange Pulpits.

Rev. Mr. Wilder and Rev. Mr. Pence exchanged pulpits Sunday morning. Dr. Hodge being ill the pulpit was occupied by Attorney B. F. Duwiddie who read a sermon based on the account of the sleep of Christ, as recorded in Matt. 8:24. Of all the good thoughts brought out these were most prominent. The sleep of Christ showed His humanity. Not all the tumult of the storm was able to disturb His sleep, yet at the first appeal for help He immediately awoke and stilled the tempest. Those who are near to Christ in their waking hours will also be near Him in their sleep.

There was an attendance of 220 at the Sunday school. A number of classes expressed their intention of helping to extend the Christmas cheer to some of the poor families of our city.

Christian Endeavor Work.

A missionary meeting in which representatives of the Christian Endeavor Society took part, was held in the Congregational church Sunday night. Miss Mae Patterson spoke of the missionary work of Presbyterians; Miss Stoddard of the Baptists; and Miss Catherine Shopbell of the Congregationalists; while Mrs. H. C. Buell told of the work in Korea, and Miss Grace Miller of the Hawaiian movement.

"True Friendship was the subject of the Baptist Christian Endeavor meeting in the evening, under the leadership of Miss Palmer. Nearly a hundred members were present besides twenty strangers. The hour was well filled with testimonies to the friendship of Christ and expressions of desire that others might be led to know the friend that sticketh closer than a brother.

In the afternoon a large number of the Baptist Endeavors attended the funeral of their secretary, Edna McDonald. The many floral offerings were but a slight expression of the high esteem in which she was held by the whole society.

NEW MILEAGE BOOK "AIR TIGHT."

Ticket Sellers Will Have To Study the "Bertillon System" To Handle Them.

And now Ticket Sellers C. A. Potter and E. J. Samuels will have to go to Paris and make an exhaustive study of the "Bertillon system," or else "jump their jobs."

It is this way: Beginning with January 1, 1896, all of the western roads will adopt the new form of mileage, in which each book will contain within itself a perfect description of the owner so that the book will be absolutely "not transferable." This scheme was recently decided upon at a meeting of the officials of all the western roads and is to prevent the use of the mileage book to any one but the owner. On the cover of each book will be printed the color of eyes, the height, age, weight, complexion, and in fact, a full description of each purchaser, so that when the conductor comes along if the description on the cover does not tally with the passenger the air will be full of trouble. That both C. A. Potter of the Northwestern and E. J. Samuels of the St. Paul road will have to be accurate judges of humanity, features, and characteristics, goes without saying for they will have to punch out the lines describing the holder of the book. If a man has sandy hair, that entry on the cover will be punched, and so on down through the list, so that it will be impossible for the purchaser to lend the book, unless it be to his twin brother or his "double."

The date of the leaving of the two men for Paris has not yet been decided upon, but it is said that the Bertillon system of identifying criminals will be "laid in the shade" by the new scheme.

CHRISTMAS TRADE.

There will be four more issues of the Weekly Gazette before Christmas—every Tuesday and Friday night.

As it has a very large circulation in the counties of Rock, Walworth, Green, Jefferson and at all points tributary to Janesville, advertisers who wish to give their holiday specialties the widest publicity should secure space in the columns of the weekly.

Advertisements in the Weekly Gazette are money makers for the advertisers.

Clergymen's Half Fare Permits.

For the information of clergymen and other religious officers entitled to travel on half fare permits, a synopsis of ruling for 1896 is herewith given: The application classifies (a) (b) (c) (d), showing those persons entitled to annual and those to only trip permits. The applicant fills in opposite his class; obtains the endorsement of local agent and then forwards application with fifty cents in check, draft, postal or delivers order to B. D. Caldwell, chairman Western Passenger Association, Chicago, Ill.

The annual permit covers 37 miles of railway in western states and is a valuable bit of cardboard. The trip permit covers only between certain points and is limited to 30 days. The signature of one agent at a point where there are several railways will suffice for all. Blanks can be obtained at the depot and may be fully endorsed and sent in at once for permits for 1896.

If suffering with piles, it will interest you to know that De Witt's Witch Hazel Salve will cure them. This medicine is a specific for all complaints of this character, and if instructions (which are simple) are carried out, a cure will result. We have tested this in numerous cases, and always with like results. It never fails. C. D. Stevens.

Read the Death Roll

Which the bills of mortality of any large city may be fitly designated, and you will find that renal and vesical maladies, that is to say, those that affect the kidneys and bladder, have a remarkable prominence—we had almost said preponderance. Bright's disease and diabetes in the chronic state are rarely cured, and gravel, catarrh, of the bladder and enuresis, slay many. Yet at the outset, when the trouble merely amounts to inactivity of the organs involved, the danger may be nullified by that thorough renal tonic and diuretic, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, which imparts the requisite amount of tone to the organs, without over-exciting them, and the use of which is convenient, and involves no elaborate preparation. Dyspepsia, a usual concomitant of renal complaints, and debility, which they invariably produce, are remedied by it. So also are constipation, malarial, rheumatic and nervous ailments.

"The Little Schoolmaster" as it is nicknamed, gives dozens of ready-made ads. each week and discusses thought fully and suggestively the means by which advertising can be made to pay.

SURPRISING YANKEE WOMAN.

Weights 300 Pounds, Works a Big Farm

Herself and Is a Terror to Tramps.

"In northern New England I recently met a fat woman," said a New Yorker, "who ought to inspire all victims of adipose tissue. I was driving with a native when she came along the road. She was positively enormous, and would have looked unpleasantly big had it not been for her pleasant, frank face. She nodded to my companion, who returned the salutation with more deference than I had observed in his manner toward any one else. After we had passed her he said that she was the wealthiest woman in the mountains.

"You wouldn't think so to see the way she works," he added, "for she does about as much as any two men around here. She has the biggest and finest farm within twenty miles, and she works it all herself. Of course, she has someone to help her in haying time, but she does her own plowing and seeding, and can toss more hay than any man I ever saw. Fat? Well, she is a pretty big woman. She weighs nearly three hundred, but she doesn't mind that, and it doesn't interfere with her getting around, either. You just try walking with her and see if you can keep up with her. I can't. I bought some hay from her last week, and when I went to get it she told me she would pack it in the wagon if I would throw it up to her. Well, she kept me working until I thought my arms would break, and the way she stamped down that hay was a caution. It was all I could do to get it out again, it was packed so hard. You saw her walking now. Well, that's what she calls taking a constitutional after her work. She will cover ten miles easy.

"Mind you, she has not got to work, and she is not stingy, either. Her sister is traveling all the time. She goes to Europe, the seashore and everywhere. She's away now. They are both of them well educated and very liberal to the poor. No one has to ask twice at that house, but tramps have to be mighty polite. Several of them that tried the other thing with this one found themselves out in the road so quick they didn't know what had struck them. She says she works for the love of it, and when she has to quit she will give up living."

THIS DAY IN HISTORY

1523—Gustavus Adolphus, king of Sweden, celebrated as a ruler and soldier, born in Stockholm; killed at Lutzen in the Thirty Years' war, 1632.

1703—John Milton born in London; died 1674.

1641—Vandyke, the celebrated painter, died in London; born 1590.

1824—The Peruvians gained their independence by a decisive victory over the Spaniards at Ayacucho. Peru owed her emancipation from the yoke of Spain primarily to General San Martin, the liberator of Chile. General Martin entered Peru in 1820 with an army of adherents from Chile and Buenos Ayres. Seizing the capital, he won many victories and drove the Spaniards to the interior. Bolivar became dictator in 1824 and soon afterward defeated the Spaniards at Ayacucho. The war lingered for about a year when the last stronghold, Callao, yielded to the patriots.

1836—Father Mathew (Theobald), famous temperance apostle, died; born in Tipperary 1793.

1874—Ezra Cornell, founder of Cornell university, died.

1875—John Ross Browne, author, artist and traveler, minister to China in 1868-9, died at Oakland, Cal.; born 1817.

FINE ART WORKS ON EXHIBITIONLEAGUE'S SHOW WAS OPENED THIS AFTERNOON.

The Display Is a Fine One and Includes the Work of Some of the Noted Artists of America—Gossip of All Kinds Gathered on the City Streets.

One thing which strikes a visitor to the Art League's second annual exhibit which opened today, is that so many of the artists have chosen subjects characteristically American. Among these is T. E. Steele, who finds all his subjects in his native state, and whose "April Morning" and "Summer Morning" are so fresh and dewy enough to show than sunlight is sunlight the world over and beautifies Indiana as well as France. There is also Frank Reaugh, sometimes called the "boy painter," whose subjects are all American. His "Round Up," included in this exhibit, has created a sensation wherever it has been exhibited. Richard Loreng, whose "Alone" has attracted so much attention in last year's exhibit has two more of his characteristic American scenes. Then there are Bessie Potter's dainty figures so "up to date," so true to life without being literal and as American as Gibson's American Girl herself. The price of admission to this exhibit has been made so low, only 15 cents, season tickets 25 cents, that no one should fail to see these works of art.

OUR prices are lower for the best goods, and especially for the next two weeks. We believe when the people have their minds made up to buy that it is the time to quote prices. So mothers, you will buy your boy a suit, pants or a nice flannel waist, a pair of kid mitts or anything in the line of children's wearing apparel, if you come to the Rosenfeld Clothing Store on the bridge, where low prices are made, not in the newspapers. Rosenfeld.

It takes two large baggage cars to transport the scenery and properties of Canary & Lederer's big New York and Chicago success, "The Passing Show" which will be seen here with the entire original cast of 110 people, at the Myers' Grand Opera House on Friday, December 27. On account of the magnitude of the company special trains are necessary to move the big organization on its tour.

BUILT right, from the steel ferrule and plug at the ground end, up to the ornamental silver trimmings on the crook of the handle. And besides, the walking sticks shown by A. F. Hall & Co., "the reliable jewelers," are all selected sticks and are the only kind that a fastidious person would want to give or receive.

I HAVE a few uncalled for shirts and pants which I will sell at a very low price if they are your size. Not muffs, but a No. 1 work, left on my hands by parties who could not raise the cash. There are 3 suits, 3 coats and vests, 1 overcoat and 4 pair pants. Bargains for some lucky person. Bolles, the tailor.

S. L. KEMMERER and E. W. Kemmerer, his son, of Independence, Iowa, are in the city preparing to open an exclusive dry goods stock. Mr. Kemmerer has taken a four years' lease of the store at No. 13 North Main street, and has secured the services of T. Van Valen, who is an old time dry goods man.

CONDUCTOR KINLIE, who had charge of the St. Paul passenger train that ran into a Beloit milk train Saturday, was in the city this morning and said that the driver had a miraculous escape. The tongue of the sleigh was broken and both horses killed but the vehicle was not even turned over.

A DELEGATION from here will go to Clinton tonight to help dedicate the Y. M. C. A. rooms. The Janesville Y. M. C. A. band will play and there will be remarks by some of the visitors. A handsome suit of furs, fitted with bath, reading tables, etc has been arranged.

AN umbrella that looks well, wears well, stands sun or rain would be apt to please a lady or gentleman as a Christmas gift. A. F. Hall & Co., the reliable jewelers have some good ones this year.

THE stock of holiday goods F. C. Cook & Co., are showing this year together with the prices they are making should attract the attention of every holiday purchaser. Don't fail to see them.

EXTENSIVE preparations are being made for the first leap year party of the season to be given on New Year's night. Forty of the Bower City's fair young ladies have the affair in charge.

PROF. F. J. TURNER will deliver the fifth lecture in the course of American Development in the new High school tonight, his subject being "The Missouri Compromise."

OUR box collection of shoes is made of tanned leather. It is soft and feels comfortable from the moment you put it on and yet keeps its shape. A Richardson Shoe Co.

If you wait until Christmas you will not be able to get a really good selection of initial bag handkerchiefs as if you bought them now. Bort, Bailey & Co.

A WEST side barber's name his gold watch was stolen from him yesterday, while he was asleep in a chair at a local business house.

S. L. KEMMERER'S Bazaar store at No. 13 North Main street is now, likewise the stock of dry goods and notions. It will be opened to the public next Wednesday and some money saved.

ing bargains will be offered from the start. Watch for the Bazaar's announcements.

A VERY prettily dressed window is that of Rosenfeld on the bridge. He goes on the theory that half the sale of an article is the way it is displayed. He shows some elegant suits and umbrellas.

BEAUTIFUL styles, useful comfortable Christmas gifts. Who would not appreciate a handsome pair of slippers. Remember we have the only complete stock in the city. Becker & Woodruff.

WE have 400 beautiful handkerchiefs that will go at five cents each. Also 200 dozen Swiss embroidered handkerchiefs that we are selling for 15 cents each. Bort, Bailey & Co.

LET us speak to you about Christmas slippers. We have more new styles, more new patterns and at lower prices than you can find elsewhere in Janesville. Becker & Woodruff.

IT must be that Brown Bros. & Lincoln expect to keep right along doing the shoe business of Janesville by the amount of goods they have received the past week.

THE ladies of the Congregational church will give a supper at the chapel from 5:30 to 7 o'clock p. m. on Wednesday, Dec. 11, also a sale of fancy articles.

EVERY evening during the week, from now until the holidays are over, our store will be open for the accommodation of customers. F. C. Cook & Company.

UNTRIMMED hats 40 cents; birds, feathers and hats 9 cents; trimmed at one-half the marked price today in Archie Reid & Co's. millinery department.

THE regular monthly meeting of the Union Catholic League will be held at their rooms tomorrow evening at 7:30 o'clock. A full attendance is desired.

Yes our slipper stock is two large. We will cut prices in two this Christmas season. Don't buy until you see our assortment. Becker & Woodruff.

WE are showing an immense line of leather goods; purses, bags, pocket books, etc. Prices away down. Bort, Bailey & Co.

ESCAPED AN ENGINE
BUT NOT THE HORSEMRS. ALLEN HURT AT A RAIL-WAY CROSSING.

Got Out of the Way of the Cars But Was Knocked Down and Run Over By a Buggy—The Driver Did Not Even Look Around to See If She Was Killed.

Mrs. Mary Allen is confined to her home, No. 16 Chatham street as the result of being knocked down and run over by a person in a buggy who did not even look around to see whether she was living or dead.

The accident occurred at the "Five Point" crossing. Mrs. Allen and her three children are employed in the Woolen mills at Monterey and were on their way home from their work. At the crossing they came very near being run down by a switch engine, but succeeded in dodging the big machine. At the same time the driver of the horse was also waiting to get across the track. When the roadway was open the man drove rapidly up Pleasant street and apparently did not see Mrs. Allen. Neither did Mrs. Allen see the approaching animal and an instant later she lay sprawling on the ground.

The shaft of the buggy struck Mrs. Allen in the chest, knocking her aside. Then the wheels caught her, and whirling her about, she fell in such a way that both wheels passed over her. Railroad men who saw the accident hastened to Mrs. Allen's assistance and she was picked up and taken to her home in the First ward. "Come back here!" one of the switchmen called to the person in the buggy, but the horse was not stopped, and the driver seemed to have urgent business in the other direction.

Since the accident Mrs. Allen has been confined to her home. She is a widow lady and has been employed at the Woolen mills for some time. The accident was a lucky one for her, for while her injuries have compelled her to remain indoors they are not thought to be of a serious or dangerous nature.

WE Will Save You Christmas Money.
Holiday goods for any a man or boy can be found at the Rosenfeld clothing store for the poor or rich it makes no difference. How foolish it is to buy articles that are really good for nothing to a man or boy. It is burning your money up. Buy useful articles, we have their suits, overcoats, single pants, gloves, mittens, caps, underwear, overshoes, or any article for man or boy we except shoes, and at low down figures no fancy prices but the lowest possible prices, merchandise can be sold for and don't forget the best make in the United States are in our store. We don't holler and shout all the time in large display advertisements but we prove that we sell goods low down at the store and that is business. These are the true facts on the matter. S. Rosenfeld, the clothier is the store where these facts are substantiated. Rosenfeld, on the bridge.

Initial Handkerchiefs.
Probably no article is quite as popular for Christmas gifts as handkerchiefs. We have a dozen complete lines of initial handkerchiefs, every letter in every line. They are very handsome and very cheap. Read our large ad and prices today. Bort, Bailey & Co.

To Open Wednesday.
The Bazaar store, I. L. Kemmerer proprietor, will open next Wednesday at No. 13 North Main street with a new stock of dry goods and notions. The Bazaar store is a permanent fixture and you will do well to watch for its announcements.

As nice a present as you could find for the young lady is a pair of those beautiful fur trimmed satin overslippers for evening wear. They are a necessity to the lady who goes out evenings in slippers. A. Richardson Shoe Co.

HOW CAN $7,000 PAY $78,000 IN DEBTSVICTOR MANUFACTURING CO.
AFFAIRS IN COURT.

E. W. Lowell Wants Judge Bennett to Allow His Claim for the Money Paid on the Champion Shelf Company—Whitewater Bank Will Lose $20,000.

How to pay $78,000 with $7,000, was what bothered attorneys and witnesses and Receiver Morgan and even Judge Bennett himself today.

Victor Manufacturing Company affairs were being settled.

When Receiver S. Morgan got all the property into cash he had about $7,000. This sum must be distributed among those holding liens and attachments, and the proving of claims is what takes time.

Of course only a fraction of the $78,000 indebtedness is secured. Among the secured creditors who will get part of their claims are the First National and the Rock County National banks; J. A. Cunningham and Fidelity Bros. The First National bank, of Whitewater, with a mortgage for $20,000, gets nothing, in all probability.

E. W. Lowell was on the stand today, testifying as to his claim of $100. He bought the Champion Shelf Co's plant for that price, and declared it was a bona fide purchase, made in good faith. The property was taken by Receiver Morgan, and Mr. Lowell insists that he should be remunerated.

Rev. E. J. Roche left on the noon train for a few days' visit with friends in Kenosha.

Michael NEE, of Fort Atkinson, is visiting in the city, the guest of his sister, Mrs. Dee.

CURING A SCAPEGRACE.

Successful in One Instance and Might Be in Others.

The Star man was talking to an acquaintance the other day, when a young fellow, who had blown in the bulk of a fortune on himself, and is liable to finish it before many moons, passed by, just a little too heavily loaded to be comfortable.

"See that young chap?" said the man. "Yes, and it's a pity about him, too. Nice fellow and with good abilities, if he would only use them as he should."

"Very true, and he isn't too old to be cured, if he went about it right."

"If you've got a cure for that sort of thing, and will get it patented, you will be a millionaire before the year is out."

"I can't say I've got a cure, but I know of one now in course of experiment."

He didn't go right ahead, and the star man nudged him with a question. "What is it, and where is it?" he asked.

"Well, I needn't tell you just that, but I'll tell you what it is. I happen to know a rich man with a relative who is just such another chap as the one we have been talking about, only more so. That is to say, he was that kind, but he isn't now. He was quick and right and had a good nose for business, but he would spend money and not make any effort to acquire it. He had about $50,000 left to him when he was 21, and he went through it like a rain through a tunnel, and then fell back on his uncle, or stepuncle rather, and the old man had him on his hands. He became utterly worthless and was drunk and in trouble all the time. One day, however, he had a sudden attack of common sense, and he braced up and saved that way for a month."

"Then he went to his uncle and made proposition to him. This proposition was to the effect that if the old gentleman would take an insurance policy on his life for $30,000 and let him have $10,000 on it to go into business with, he would guarantee to pay the $10,000 back, with the premium, and assume the policy himself within five years."

He failed he would commit suicide and the old man would make $20,000, as the premiums, which, he thought, was a fair percentage on the investment. It looked to the uncle something like murder, but he thought there was no other way to cure him, so he took the young man up, and the experiment has now been in operation two years, and up to this time the young fellow has been as straight as string, and is $7,000 to the good, which he has set aside for emergencies, and is going ahead making just as much more as he can. The old man is pleased about it that I don't believe will ask the boy—he's nearly 30—fulfill the contract at the end of five years, in case he shouldn't have the full amount in his clothes just at that time."

"Where did you say the young man lived?" inquired the Star man. "I didn't say Washington," he replied.
